

THE SIX CLASSIC MALTS OF SCOTLAND.

The Six Classic Malts of Scotland is carefully selected to best represent each of the mail whisky producing regions of Scotland.

They embrace the full diversity of regional tastes and styles.

Appropriately the Classic Malts symbol is the Quich, which for centuries has been the traditional Scottish drinking bowl reserved for toasting the finest single malt whiskies.

Around the horn.: (Below sorted : From a bit sweet to smoked)

OBAN (Sweet)	A 14 year old combining the sophistication of the Highlands with a touch of the peaty style of the Islands. It is rich and full-bodied with a mellow fruity finish.
GLENKINCHIE (Ladies whisky)	Glenkinchie is a soft, sweetly aromatic malt from the 'Garden of Scotland'. Is has a fresh, grassy sweetness balanced with a warming, dryish finish.
CRAGGANMORE (Medium)	A 12 year old elegant, sophisticated Speyside with the most complex aroma of any malt. Astonishingly fragrant with sweetish notes and a smoky maltiness on the finish.

TALISKER A bit smoked.	A 10 year old and the only malt produced on Skye. Its seaweedy, smoky nose and sweet maltiness is perfectly complimented by its spicy, long finish.
DALWHINNIE	A 15 year old gentle, delicate malt from the wild and windswept Highlands. It is subtle, smooth delicately smoky malt with a heathery honey finish.
LAGAVULIN (This is Smoked.)	A 16 year old distinctive and powerful Islay malt. It is deeply smoky and peaty with a velvety, complex finish.
